

ANNOUNCEMENT

CALOUSTE GULBENKIAN FELLOWSHIP IN THE FIELD OF MIEVEAL OR EARLY MODERN ARMENIAN HISTORY
AT BOĐAZIĐI UNIVERSITY, ISTANBUL
FUNDED BY THE CALOUSTE GULBENKIAN FOUNDATION

The Department of History at BođaziĐi University, Istanbul, Turkey, invites applications for a one-year (two semesters) Fellowship in the field of Medieval or Early Modern Armenian History to be funded by the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation starting in September 2020.

The holder of this Fellowship will be expected to undertake research, give one public lecture per semester and bi-weekly seminars and/or lectures open to undergraduate and graduate students of the university. The expected workload would be the equivalent of 2 courses per semester. The public lectures will reflect the research of the Fellow. All lectures and seminars will be given entirely in English.

The Fellowship is funded by the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation to the amount of 40,000 EUR, to be paid directly by the Foundation to the Fellow to cover the salary, work permit, visa, health insurance, housing, travel and other expenses.

Candidates with a Ph.D. degree in a relevant area and excellent command of English should send in their application to the Department of History before March 1, 2020. Applications must include a curriculum vitae, a cover letter discussing research and teaching interests, three letters of recommendation (to be sent directly by the referees), one article or chapter-length writing sample, and a detailed program and basic reading list for the bi-weekly seminars for consideration.

Electronic files (in pdf format) must be received by the application deadline at history.application@boun.edu.tr.

Armenian History Fellowship Search Committee

BođaziĐi University

Department of History

Bebek 34342 Istanbul, Turkey